Pierce County Legal Notices & Creditor Publications

Under RCW 11.40.020, personal representatives in Washington must publish a formal Notice to Creditors in the official county legal newspaper: the Tacoma Daily Index.

1. The 4-Month Creditor Clock

The notice runs once a week for three successive weeks. Creditors have four months from the date of first publication to present claims. If an estate is solvent and has nonintervention powers, real estate can still be sold during this window, with sale proceeds held in the estate escrow account.

2. Daily Ingestion Utility

Monitoring the Tacoma Daily Index provides continuous, real-time discovery of newly opened estates, attorney representations, and appointed personal representatives without requiring LINX portal authentication.
